

Fergus

Even a broken leg and a snow storm could not keep this darling little guy down ... in fact, if anyone could turn misfortune into opportunity, it is Fergus. By the time he found help, only his little tail was still a thumping, but it showed he was a fighter and so, on his behalf, we campaigned for his his leg and therefore his future. And just like Brixton, Fergus' accident timing worked to his advantage as those generous donors to Friends of the Shelter chose him as a poster child for their campaign to carry on. Although very frustrated with his restrictions of cage rest as the sun starts to shine again, Fergus is willing to negotiate continued cage rest as long as he is kept busy with a regularly restocked busy buddy bristle bone. Ferg is crate trained, working on housebreaking, eager to please, and ready for someone to fall in love with him. Vet reference required.
